Is Your Business Empowered to Succeed?

Have you given yourself the necessary tools and business training to achieve your dreams?

Is every aspect of your business infused with prosperity principles and wealth attraction?

Consider this:

- ❑ Growing a profitable business is not intuitive, it takes training.
- ❑ There is a secret to working in partnership with your business instead of struggling against it.
- ❑ You were given the talent and abilities to launch your own business; perhaps all that is now required is to put a solid foundation beneath it.

In this seminar you will learn the secret to building a truly successful business:

- 3 critical things you need to do to generate abundant income
- Overcoming your business' unique requirements
- How to create a "home run" business vision
- Developing business and marketing plans that attract wealth & success
- The key income producers and income killers in any business
- How to set achievable goals and infuse them with the power to succeed
- How to identify and avoid common business pitfalls

What Others Are Saying

"I met Gayle Wilson a year ago to discuss my business goals and to create a business and marketing plan. While in our preliminary meeting an amazing thing happened; I realized I had bigger goals for my business than I thought. Not only did I have big dreams, Gayle had a systematic way to help me identify and gather information and to know what steps to take. A year later, I have adjusted my original goal and am now meeting all of my objectives. I couldn't have done it without Gayle's system and support." Kathryn Perry; www.commandingwealth.com

Your instructors are senior-level business executives with expertise in business planning, marketing and business operations.

If finances are an issue, ask about our scholarship program for training classes.

This seminar is recommended for business owners that:

- Are not making the income you want from your business.
- Have hit that "business wall" and are looking to jump start your business.
- Are looking to expand your current business with different products or services.
